The Voice of the Morrow Tournament

MOMENTOUS DECISION!!!

Greenville, DE - Your Morrow Committee has been hard at work deciding whether to make an endorsement. There is one Democrat on the committee (and maybe another one or two closet Democrats). Is the Committee feeling the BERN? Or was that just the chili at the last committee meeting. Hillary has her fans, but she's not fun. Martin O'Malley would be a fine high school principal. Again, not so fun.

On the Republican side, there is a WHOLE LOT OF FUN GOIN' ON. Tina Fey is so happy that Sarah Palin is back that she peed her pants. Donald Trump is shooting people on 5th Avenue. Ted Cruz is attacking everyone. Rick Santorum has finally tired of spending Foster Friess's (a Vicmead member) fortune on yet another hopeless campaign.

So the committee debated and debated. Then it caucused and caucused. Then it voted and voted and voted.

AND AFTER ALL THAT, the decision was reached. Yes, the Committee decided that the official drink of the Morrow Tournament would be the Mai Tai. This decision was not made without great thought. The 15th Morrow Tournament(1999) had a Hawaiian theme in honor of Dick Morrow's wife, Sugar (no relation to Candy Goddu). The special drink was the MAI TAI, made famous by Trader Vic aka Victor Jules Bergeron, Jr. (12/10/02 - 11/11/84)

CONTROVERSY ERUPTS OVER HISTORY OF TOURNAMENT

32 OR 43??

Greenville, DE - The Committee has been meeting day and night to discuss an issue that no one in their right mind will care about.

After the very successful 30th Anniversary celebration, one of the tournament founders, Barry Snyder, decided to re-write history.

Follow along as Loophole Snyder, of the law firm, Dewey, Cheatum and Howe, makes his case. "Remember that old Chicago song 25 or 6 to 4. Well, I have no idea what the name of that song means, and I have even less of an idea how it relates to what I am about to say, but here goes!"

"The Morrow Tournament is a continuation of the Wilmington Platform Tennis Open (the original name). It started in 1974. The tournament was re-named the Tri-Club Mixed Championship. It remained the Tri-Club even after Kennett Square GCC was added. Although this is the 32st playing of the tournament under the name Morrow Tournament, it is the 43rd playing of the Tri-Club Mixed. The 5 year anniversary parties are great fun (and we each get an expensive favor), so this gets us a year closer to the 45th anniversary year, and a year closer to the 50th, which will be the party to end all parties. How could that be a bad thing? I can't sing When I'm 64 anymore, because I am 64, and I can't sing. If we don't it change it now I'll have to live to be 82 (not likely) to join in the 50th celebration. I rest my case ... before I rest in peace."

MORROW COMMITTEE ADOPTS NEW TRANSGENDER POLICY

Centreville, DE - Keeping up with the Olympics the Committee adopted a new transgender policy. In her announcement Tournament Czar, Martha White, declared that the Morrow Tournament would be ahead of the times. That may have contradicted somewhat by Pat Devitto, who stage whispered, "I didn't know we had an old transgender policy."

The new policy was not in time for Michael Ashley. There were unsubstantiated rumors last fall that Michael was thinking about switching from the D-2 Vicmead team to the D-1 GCC team. The rumors were traced to his fellow WCC club members who play for the lowly D-3 team. There was much speculation about why Michael dumped his sultry sister, Lisa, after 21 years of playing the Morrow, to play the Commissioner's squash event at WCC. Lisa was gracious as always. With a twinkle in her eye, she said "With time you all will realize that it was the right thing for Michael to do."

Our intrepid reporter, Dave "The Slasher" Zabel, got to the bottom of it. Michael did approach GCC, but it was to play for the Cup 1 Women's team. Next fall should be very interesting.
